The Human Rights Forum under the Department of History & Political Science, organized a Two Day International Virtual Conference on December 11 and 12, 2020 in connection with International Human Rights Day. The International Conference titled LOCATING HUMAN RIGHTS-TRAJECTORIES & DISCOURSES (ICLHTD) was organized in collaboration with Manoj and Chitra, International Legal Service Providers. On Day 1, the Inaugural session was presided over by the College Principal Dr. Deepa M. The Head of the Department of History, Dr Lekha Rani M. L. welcomed the dignitaries. Padma Bhushan Justice K.T. Thomas, Retd. Judge, Supreme Court of India, inaugurated the Conference by highlighting the importance of Human Rights by focusing on the Articles of the Indian Constitution. Dr J. Ravindran, International Human Rights Law Expert delivered the Keynote address. We also had the good fortune to have Justice Antony Dominic, Chairman, Kerala State Human Rights Commission who gave a Special Lecture during the inaugural session. This was followed by the taking of the Human Rights Pledge by all the participants. The Pledge was read out by the Student Coordinator of the Human Rights Forum, Megha Bijukumar. There was an interesting interactive session after this wherein all the speakers answered the queries posed by the participants and gave their viewpoints and valuable suggestions. Dr Parvathy Menon, Coordinator of Human Rights Forum and Convener of the Conference, proposed the Vote of Thanks. There were around 100 participants including academicians, professionals, and research scholars for the session.

The Afternoon session of Day 1 was a Plenary Session for which Dr Reshmi R. Prasad, Dean of Academic Affairs delivered the welcome address. Swapna Sundar, IP Strategist and Patent Agent, University of Tennessee spoke on the topic IPR from a Human Rights Perspective. Dr V.R.
